Abstract: Kalyana Varma in his Saravali has devoted 5 chapters for Lost Horoscopy. Lost horoscopy means that when the time of birth or time of conception is not available, one can trace the lost birth details through horary method-this is how he begins the 'Lost Horoscopy' chapter. Under Chapter 51 he gives the effect of Navamsa Varga and lists out the details of complexion, disposition and appearance for a Native.

Keywords: Navamsa, Lagna, Shastras

1. Introduction

'A native's complexion, disposition and appearance can be deduced based on the rising Navamsa at birth. The effects being stated infra will depend on the stronger of the two, viz. the Moon's Navamsa depositor and the Navamsa Lagna Lord.' In the concluding part on Lost Horoscopy he also states that lost horoscope rules as expanded by Yavana, Bhadasana etc are ambiguous in some parts.
